

Royal Geographical Society of South Australia Inc.

Grant Applications 2014

The Society is currently reviewing the offering grants for 2014. If you think you have a worthwhile project over three years contact the Society's Secretary for more advice.

The Society is always keen to receive tax deductible gifts and continually reviews its current research grant allocation program if significant gifts are received.