ROYAL GEOGRAPHICAL SOCIETY OF SOUTH AUSTRALIA

ROYAL GEOGRAPHICAL SOCIETY OF SA VISIT TO THE STATE PARLIAMENTARY LIBRARY

Monday 12th August, 11am - 12 noon.
Details from the RGSSA office.

The SA Parliamentary Library has been providing support for Members of Parliament since its establishment in the early 1850s. A collection of over 600,000 items, it holds a wide variety of books, maps and plans that have great historical value. There is also an eclectic assortment of unusual material that is deemed to reflect the life and times of the people of South Australia through the decades.

The collection reflects and documents the changes in South Australian society, the pre-war influence of Britain followed by the rise of the USA and now the influence of Asia.

Our tour of the Library will be conducted by the State Parliamentary Librarian Dr John Weste.

Join us on this visit to the Parliamentary Library. Details and registration through the RGSSA office on 8207 7266.
