

Susie Herzberg OAM

The Overland Telegraph after 150 years: a 21st century perspective of the OTL

Susie, a descendent of Charles and Alice Todd, is a company director and has worked in urban, environmental and strategic planning in government, in private practice and at the University of Adelaide

5 pm, 16 June 2022

Hetzel Theatre, Institute
Building

Cnr North Tce & Kintore Ave

Enter off Kintore Ave

Book here through

Eventbrite

RGSSA members gold coin

Non-members welcome for $10/person

Susie will discuss the processes which led to the Overland Telegraph Project, the role of Todd, the preparation, planning and governance of the project and the history of the relationships between those who worked on the line and this country's First Peoples.

The RGSSA Lecture Program is supported by the State Library of South Australia